Papa Pays The Bills

The whole family wear shoes. There may be half a dozen pairs all going along on the wide road to destruction at once—half a dozen pairs of feet helping to pile up the figures on the expense side of Papa's ledger.

Papa is the one who knows what it is worth to save a quarter on the price of every pair of shoes he buys. Hence Papa buys here.

DELICATE DESSERTS.

Creams to Tempt Flaggish Appetites, From Good Housekeeping.

Almond Charlotte russe, a dish fit for a king, requires a pint of thick sweet cream, white of an egg, a half ounce of gelatin, 2 tablespoonsful of sugar, a teaspoonful of almond extract. Put the gelatin in just enough water to dissolve it. While this is slowly dissolving whip the cream to a froth. Whip the white of egg and mix it with the cream. As soon as the gelatin is dissolved boil for 2 minutes, add the sugar and when about as warm as milk add the flavoring and the cream and eggs. Beat the mixture until cold. Pour over a sponge cake that has been baked in a scalloped tin. Put the cake while warm, to prevent crumbling, into a round dish, allowing the scallops to show at the top, then pour the cream into it, and you have a dish fit for a king.

Bavarian Cream.—A pint of sweet milk, a half pint of hot water, a pint of whipped cream, 2½ cupsful of sugar, a teaspoonful of vanilla, a cupful of canned or fresh pineapple, a cupful of chopped English walnuts, a half boxful of gelatin. Dissolve the gelatin in as little water as will cover it. Let it soak an hour, pour on the hot water, and when perfectly dissolved add the milk and sugar and boil ten minutes briskly. Remove from the stove and add the vanilla and cream. Set in a cool place, and as soon as it begins to form stir in the fruit and nuts. One may leave out the walnuts, and on taking from the mold decorate with blanched almonds, standing them upright in the cream. Keep in a cool place until served.

White and Yellow.—Whites of 4 eggs, 4 tablespoonsful of fine, white confectioners' sugar, 3 tablespoonsful of currant jelly. Whip the whites of the eggs to a froth, then add the sugar and jelly, beat well together, put in small dishes ready to serve and pour around a custard made from the yolks of the eggs a cupful of milk and 2 tablespoonsful of sugar. Add a little lemon juice to the custard.

Spanish Cream.—Let a pint of milk, part cream, come to a boil and stir in the yolks of 3 eggs beaten to a cream with three-fourths of a cupful of sugar. Let this come to a boil, then add half a box of gelatin which has soaked in a little milk for 15 minutes. Let this all boil up thick, remove from the stove and stir in the whites of the eggs beaten stiff. Flavor with vanilla, pour into a wet mold and set on the ice. This is often used in place of ice cream.
